WINDSOR SCHOOLS EXCEL

On the last day of school, every graduating boy and girl has a date with history. This date is the beginning of the second stage of the voyage through life.

No one will wish to embark without a chart which will guide him to the harbour of his choice.

In planning this chart each graduate must decide what he wants to do with his life. He must count the cost, and discipline himself to meet difficulties, disappointments and frustration. He must recognize the need for further education. He must realize that his greatest satisfaction will come from achievement through hard work.

There has never been an age when so great work waited to be done, with so many tools at hand for those who have the knowledge, the skill and the ambition to use them.

The education already received has given every graduate a wide degree of power over his own life and the lives of others.

The use made of this power and the contributions made for the benefit of others will in a large measure determine the happiness and success of this voyage.

Edward W. Fox.

VALEDICTORIAN ADDRESS

Mr. Fox, honoured guests, members of the staff, fellow graduates, ladies and gentlemen:

A graduation ceremony is an occasion both happy and sad. Our families are happy and proud that we have passed our exams and are hopeful that we are graduating to bigger and better things. Our teachers are happy that they have finally got us through their classes with some degree of success, proving that their efforts on our behalf have not been entirely in vain. It is a sad occasion, too. Parents finally realize that their children have grown up, that soon they will be leading their own lives--perhaps in places far from home. Teachers also are sorry to see us go--but they, unlike our parents, have a continuous supply of fresh faces to take the place of our all-too-familiar ones.

On our part, perhaps our immediate feelings on passing our final examinations were those of extreme relief and elation. However, now that we have had time to reflect upon our high school years, I believe I speak for all of us when I say that it is with mixed feelings that we are here tonight. For many of us, this will be the last time that we will set foot, as students, in this collegiate, and our last opportunity to see all our old friends as a group. We have had many good times in this school during the past three years-the basketball games, the assemblies, the dances (especially the Christmas dances); the hockey games, the trip to London with Herman's first championship team. We will remember too, our classes; the chemistry experiments that never quite worked out for us; the many frustrating physics questions that somehow were never fully resolved; the arguments in English classes; the menus in French, just before lunch; the luminous, multi-coloured diagrams in Miss Tunks' geometry class; the gum in the inkwells in every class. These, and many more, will form the happy memories of our high school years.

Now we are continuing our education, in teacher's college, in university, in the business world. For the process of education never stops. We have accumulated approximately thirteen years of so-called book learning, and are beginning the accumulation of knowledge in the ways of the world. I can speak now only from my own experience after two months of attending university. As an insignificant "frosh" I quickly learned how much I don't know and how much I am expected to learn on my own. It was quickly brought home to me that I was completely on my own. I am sure that my fellow-graduates have also discovered the need for a re-assessment of their outlook on life.

Now I would like to address a few remarks to those of you who are entering the final and most important phase of your high school education. You must, realize, having gone thus far, the importance of education, particularly further education. On successfully completing high school, too many are imbued with a false sense of security. They feel that they have learned enough. But in this specialized world of today, even a high school education is inadequate. Further training, either academic or technical, is essential.

However, this is not to belittle the value of a high school education. The days we spend in high school are crucial ones, coming as they do during our formative years. During this time we develop our views on many subjects, discover our interests, our aptitudes, and, perhaps most important of all our failings. It is here that we shape the basic pattern of our lives, that we meet our first serious disappointments and heartbreaks, our first important triumphs and successes. Here, life-long friendships are established and we learn to distinguish the true friends from the false. Here also, we have our first love affairs, juvenile in retrospect, yet essential in the evolution of the deep and mature relationship upon which marriage should be based.

And now to my fellow-graduates, I say this: Graduation marks the end of a vital stage in our lives. While in high school we were as yet children in the eyes of many-although much was said to us of the rigours of getting through Grade 13. Even the greater responsibility we had to bear, ourselves, during this last year, however, was alleviated somewhat by the solicitous proddings of anxious parents and equally anxious teachers. We were not completely on our own. But, from now on, we stand completely responsible for our success or for our failure in whichever field we have chosen.

As the second graduating class of Herman Collegiate, we are helping to establish a tradition for those graduates who will follow us. It is our great responsibility to set them a high standard.

STAFF CHANGES AT HERMAN COLLEGIATE

Last year, Herman lost several valuable teachers.

Mrs. P. McEwan has retired from teaching. A graduate of the University of Western Ontario, she taught English and Physical Education. She also did an excellent job of coaching the girls' swimming team.

Mrs. F. McLean also left Herman last year. She graduated from the University of Western Ontario and she taught science. She was moved to be with her husband who owns a golf course at Lambeth Ontario. She is now teaching at Glencoe High School.

Another teacher who left Herman was Mrs. B. Boyd. She has retired from teaching to look after her family. Mrs. Boyd taught Latin and German and was also a graduate of the University of Western Ontario.

Mr. H. Zeilig also left Herman last year to return to his art studio on Tecumseh Road. He is a noted artist and he painted the lovely portrait of our Queen hanging in our main hall.

Mr. M. E. Johnson left Herman Collegiate last year. He attended McGill University and the University of Michigan. He taught Physical Education and was noted especially as a gymnast. Because of his coaching, Herman won thirteen out of fifteen gold medals at the annual W.O.S.S.A. competition last year. He is now working on a fellowship at the University of Michigan where he also coaches gymnastics.

PREFECTS

One of the best know and busiest groups of all at Herman is the staff of Prefects. Seventeen in number, these are volunteers who help supervise the halls and cafeteria during the lunch periods.

The prefects also help as ushers for evening events and supervise sock-hops. John Rollo is the prefect in charge of arranging schedules for sock-hop duty.

Since all the prefects are senior students, they are urged to assist students and teachers, to encourage school spirit and to set a good example for the other students. They have been complimented for their efficiency.

The prefects also help to maintain order in the halls and help the office staff by collecting attendance slips. They are able to fulfil any of the principal's requests.

The I.S.C.F. is a club which helps to establish good morals for its teenage members. Under Mr. Dresser's guidance, the club learns "to know Christ, and to make Him Known". Weekly meetings consist of Bible study, discussions, or guest speakers. Mr. Bernie Smith, the I.S.C.F. Staff member for South-Western Ontario, is a frequent visitor. Although it is a small club, it does a lot of good.

DRAMA CLUB

There was an excellent turnout for the Drama Club this year. Our president, Dolores Thack, and our secretary, Linda Davenport, had no difficulty finding eager volunteers to help in the various jobs necessary in presenting our annual play. This year, we produced "Charlie's Aunt."

Our thanks to Miss Kelly, from the members of the Drama Club, for her excellent supervision and encouragement in helping to make our Club of '62 a success.

THE UNITED NATIONS CLUB

The United Nations Club is another one of this year's new clubs. Mr. Mahon and Mr. Veres are the club's supervisors. There are about twenty members; the president is Jim Barlow of 13B. The club's main purpose is to get to know what the United Nations is, and to understand its functions and some of its problems. The club has informal discussions on topics concerning the U.N.; for example, "How much of our national income should

MATH CLUB

The math club is one of the new clubs this year, and it is mainly for grade nine. The purpose is to study some special areas of mathematics not possible in the regular course. Some of the fields they study are Numeration System, the Slide Rule, the History of Math, and Topology. The meetings are held twice a month and the supervisors are Miss Tunks and Mr. Dresser.

Carol Balfour--10A

CHESS CLUB

Jon Mathias is the president of the club this year, and Mr. Vaghan-Evans is the supervisor. The members, about twenty in number, meet twice weekly to teach beginners the game and give other members a chance to play with good competition. A tournament was played with Forster and we won--of course. I guess that proves the chess club is a school of thinkers.

Carol Balfour--10A

POSTER ARTISTS

A lot of good work was done this year by the poster artists. Posters were displayed for all to see their colour and cartoons. Posters were put up for everything from games to carol singing. As Mr. Gallie says, the club is purely a dictatorship. There are no presidents or the likes, but just a group which congregates for the distribution of assignments and supplies. There are fifteen to twenty active members and they're all doing the job well.

Twelve boys, supervised by Mr. Sillick, form the science club, and every topic from bacteriology to electronics is discussed. A series of student seminars were held, in which each member composed a paper on one of his favourite fields. Projects of interest were also produced and shown by the members. Once the club is running smoothly, tours will be planned and some films will be shown.

Carol Balfour--10A

AEROPLANE CLUB

The aeroplane club is a very active group this year, although there are but eighteen members. Mr. Greenway supervises the group and the club's president is Joe Novosad. A plane's fundamental assembly is taught to give the members an idea of the actual aeroplane's structure and function. Most of the members supply their own engines while Mr. Greenway has a radio-controlled plane under construction, which will be demonstrated when it is completed. It is easy to see why the boys are really interested in this club.

Carol Balfour--10A

CAMERA CLUB

This year the Camera Club has become a much larger club, having forty-five to fifty paid members. The teacher in charge is Mr. Melega and the president is Barry Schiele. The club's purpose is to teach the art of photography. Work is also done for the year book and pictures taken for the players-of-the-week. As you can easily see, it is a great contribution to the student body.

Another school year has come and gone leaving many fond memories in all our hearts. These memories are accredited to the passed events occurring at Herman C.I. in 1961-1962.

Of these memories are the Campaign for School Executive, Graduation, The Continental Fantasy, The School Play, The Soc-Hops, The Assemblies, The Herman Harmony, The Fashion Show, the Activity Night and The Imagination Prom.

The most important event of the past year was the Graduation Exercises held on November 19 in the school gymnasium. It was a very impressive ceremony with the presentation of the Honour Graduation Diplomas to Grade 13 and the Graduation Diplomas to Grade 12. The school orchestra provided the music for the Third Annual Graduation held at Herman C.I. Afterwards refreshments were served, followed by a dance enjoyed by everyone.

The Campaign Program for the school executive was very amusing and entertaining. Among the features of the program was a fashion show commentated by Fran Scarfone, and a Hula Dance presented by Fred Hussey and Fran Mousseau, Jerry McCann's Orchestra provided the music for this year's semi-formal, "The Continental Fantasy". The Can-Can girls, the small French Cafe, and the Ancient Greek temple made up only part of the elaborate decorations giving the school a one night atmosphere of Europe. All attending the dance had a wonderful time.

The assemblies for this year included the Air Force Band, the presentation of awards, a speech on Christian-Fellowship by Mr. Bernard Smith and a United Nations Assembly.

A side-splitting three-act play, "Charlie's Aunt", was presented under the excellent direction of Miss Kelly. The well presented acting of Carol Esvik and the other members of the Drama Club made the play one of the best ever presented at Herman.

Several Soc-Hops were put on by the Social Committee during the past year. The members of the Social Committee would like to express a sincere "Thank You" to Mr. Martin, Mr. Aitken, and Mr. Sillick for their interest and good supervision shown towards the students at these dances.

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Armin and Mr. Dresser the Annual Herman Harmony was held on March 30. The musical program met the high expectation of all who attended.

On April 6, Miss Myers and the girls of the home economic classes staged an interesting display of fashions. All fashions were made by the girls during the year. It proved to be a very enjoyable evening for all.

Our annual Imagination Prom was held on May 12. The fine selection of music was provided by Jerry McCann and his orchestra.

May 18 was the date of a pack-filled night of fun - The Activity Night.
The evening was made up a varied program of events which included such things as basketball and swimming. Afterwards a dance was held.

We are now nearing the end of another school year and as with every passing year, there will be those who must say goodbye to Herman forever, but will always cherish the memories of their high school days at Herman Collegiate Institute.

SPEECH CONTESTS 1961-1962

Thanks from the student body are extended to all members of the English Department who helped to make possible, once again, the annual school public speawere not at all well represented, those that entered made an excellent showing.

Junior Boys: 1st--Jim Shelson
2nd--Cameron Horne

Senior Girls: 1st--Bev Tuck

MAJORETTES

The majorettes formed one of the new groups at Herman this year. Marilyn Demers, Sue Ardiel, Carol Esvik, and Liz Wright are the co-leaders of the club's 22 members. These girls planned their own routines, which they performed at football and basketball games. Some of the girls have had lessons and they teach the untrained members. In the spring our majorettes will perform in parades in Michigan and Ohio. Keep up the hard work!

Liz Sebestyen--10A

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders help to build School Spirit. This year there are 12 girls and 4 boys doing this important job. Sylvia Payne is the captain of the girls, while Roy Warner is the captain of the boys. Miss Russell is their sponsor teacher. The Student Council purchased the boy's uniforms this year and will buy new skirts for the girls.

Our cheerleaders are particularly good this year. The girls compose most of the new cheers, and the boys, who are also members of the gymnastic team, display their athletic ability every time they lead us in a cheer. Thank you for a year of hard work.

Q. Why is an orange and an apple the same?

A. They are both orange except for the apple.

In May of 1961, W. F. Herman Collegiate Cadet Corps held the Third Annual Cadet Inspection. It was a warm, sunny afternoon and in their heavy, wool uniforms, the cadets were extremely warm. The inspection opened with the inspecting party making the rounds of the squadrons. The Commanding Officer of the corps, Cdt. Lt. Col. B. Pike introduced each Company Commander to Maj. Holmes, the inspecting officer. Then, the battalion went through a march past and then sat down to enjoy the demonstration. First, the band gave a brilliant display of its playing and marching ability. Then, the Precision Squad went through a series of very complicated manoeuvres without any verbal command. Next, the First Aid Corps showed what they had learned in the way of caring for the injured. Finally, the Signal Corps gave a somewhat humorous demonstration of a combat signal platoon in action. The inspection ended with presentations being made by various members of the inspection party. "B" Squadron was named best squad. The Precision Squad, best specialist platoon, and Cdt. Maj. D. Arrand, best cadet on parade. Squadrons were then marched off and the inspection officially over.

This year, the Cadets got off to an early start. The Officers and NCO's class, First Aid Corps, and the Signal Corps were all organized right after Christmas. The Junior NCO's, under the direction of Mr. Durocher have been trained, in army organization, basic army drill, and the use of weapons. Officers and Senior NCO's have been taking advance drill and man management under the direction of Mr. A. Boutin.

The Signal Corps under the direction of Mr. Melega have been learning the International Code. The Army provides a bonus to all boys who reach a specified proficiency. This year Mr. Veres' First Aid Corps is mastering the art of rescue work. At the end of their course, the boys are given an examination and if they succeed, will be considered trained First Aid Personnel. This training is accepted by the army and if the boys should ever

Investment and Opportunity

Canada needs young men and women of ambition and ability who want to build successful, worth-while careers. Money invested in education, particularly at the university level, offers this opportunity and gives Canada a high return.

Since it began six years ago, the General Motors Canadian Scholarship Programme has created opportunities for students who found lack of sufficient funds all that kept them from a university education. Twenty-five scholarships are awarded each year and, to the present, more than 200 students have received awards ranging in value to $2,000 a year.

The choice of one of 14 universities and of faculty rests entirely with the students and their advisors. The GM Scholarship Programme also provides grants to the universities themselves to help maintain and improve the quality of education.

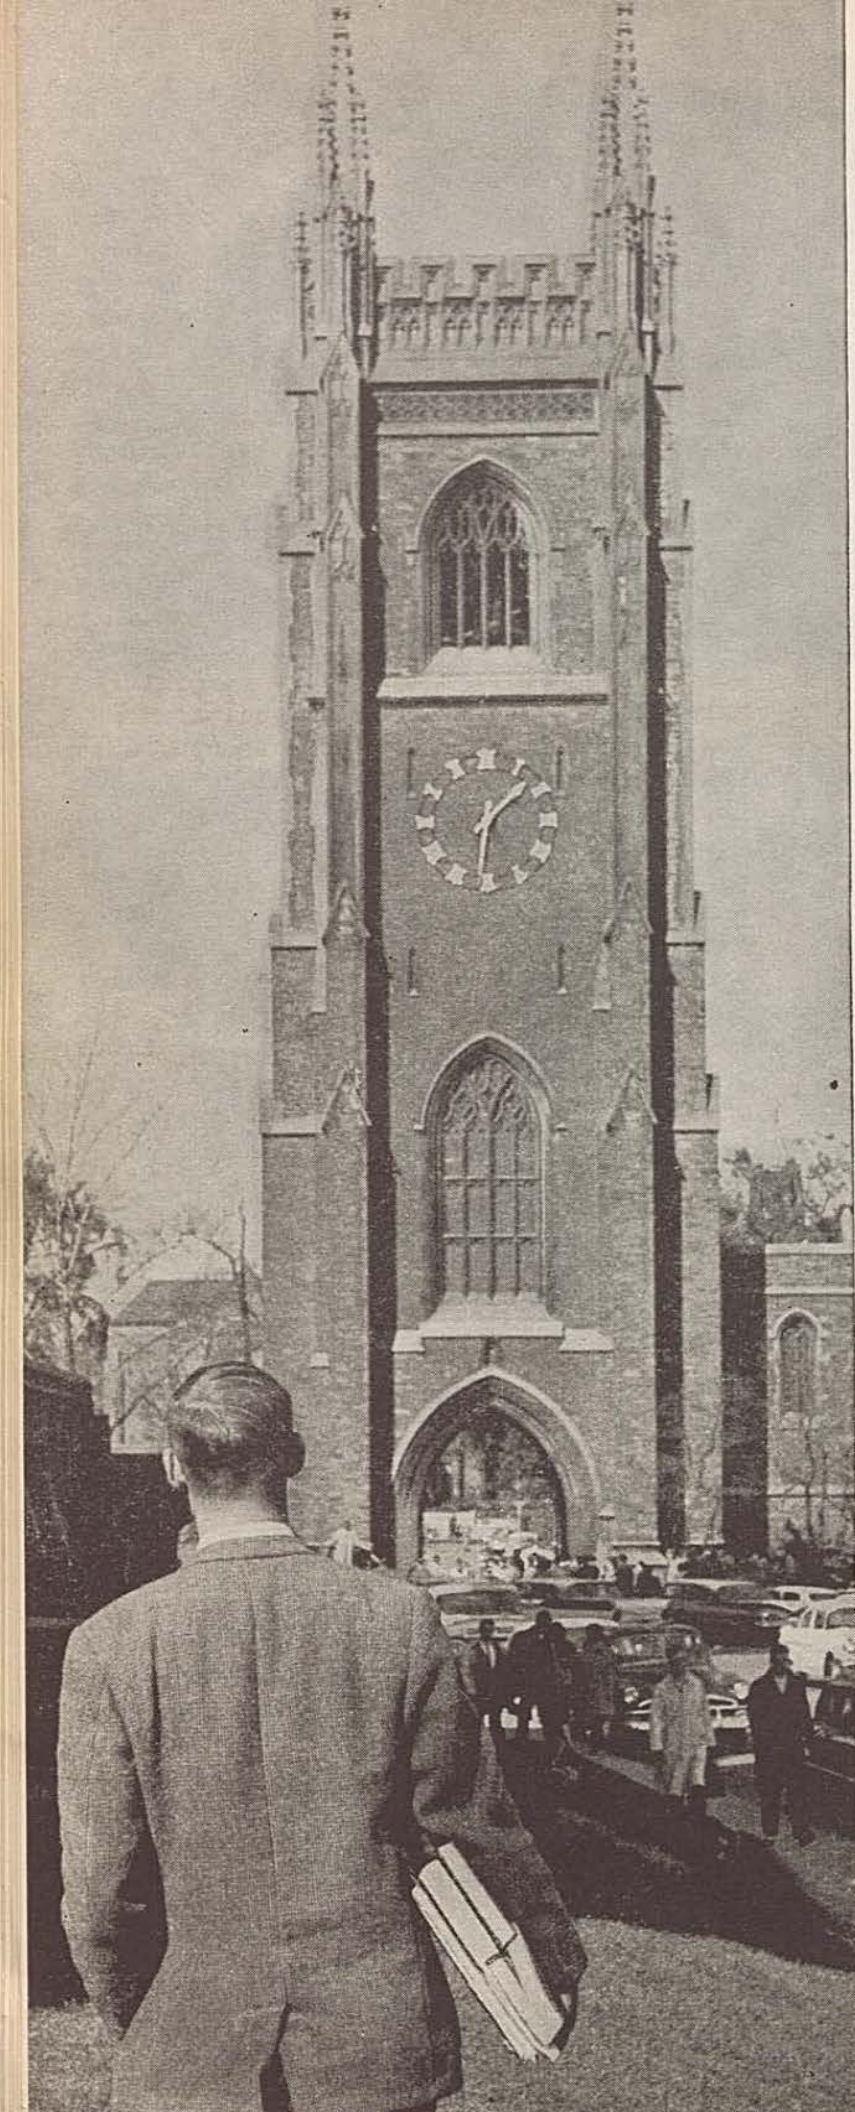

The seven General Motors companies operating in Canada want to help deserving students develop their capabilities so that they can prepare for an important part in Canada's future.

It is an investment we like.

Applications for General Motors Scholarships should be directed to the Registrars of the following participating universities: The University of Toronto; the University of Western Ontario, London; Queen's University, Kingston; the University of Montreal; the University of Manitoba, Winnipeg; the University of British Columbia, Vancouver; the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon; the University of Alberta, Edmonton; Dalhousie University, Halifax; the University of New Brunswick, Fredericton; Laval University, Quebec City; McGill University, Montreal; Memorial University, St. John's, Newfoundland; and McMaster University, Hamilton.

GENERAL MOTORS

enter the service, this training will go with them.

This year, the corps added 38 girls to its nominal roll. The girls, under the direction of Mr. Mencil and Mr. Boutin, will receive instruction in basic army drill, first aid, civil defence and proper range procedure. They have been granted Range privileges. The girls will also take part in the Annual Inspection in May. It is hoped that they will add some colour to the scene.

GOLF TEAM

This year the W.S.S.A. Tournament was held at Roseland Golf and Country Club. Vincent Massey Collegiate captured the championship. The Herman Team coached by Mr. Moir consisted of Ted Kostyniuk, Gary Gault, Wayne Miles, Roger Sinclair and Jerry Laing.

The team finished third in a field of eight teams.

At the school golf tournament, at Lakewood, Rick Van Atter finished first. Next year, the Herman team will be fighting to gain the championship.

Jerry Laing--13B

BADMINTON CLUB

The badminton club was organized under the leadership of Miss Myers. The officers include President -- Randy Pringle, Secretary--Cynthia Lee, Curators--Judy Bennet and Snyzana Gacesa. Attendance was quite high but unfortunately decreased in the school tournament. The grade nine students turned out in full force and it is hoped that they continue with the club next year. We are sending several players into the W.S.S.A. tournament at Walkerville Collegiate on April 7. They are Judy Bennet, Pat Wilson, Ken Stoddard, Elaine Monk and Steve Martzluft. The finals will be held on April 13 at Kennedy Collegiate.

Our thanks goes out to Miss Myers on behalf of the club.

Elaine Monk--11B

Although the turnout for this year's Cross Country team was small, the team, under the capable guidance and coaching of Mr. Greenway, did quite well, finishing fourth in the city.

At the city meet, in October, Kirk Zeller finished second overall, Bill Pratt twelfth, and George Findlay seventeenth. Santo Scarfone and Alan McMillan finished twentieth and twenty-third respectively. In the second race, Middleton, B. McMillan, Sekersky and Horne placed twentieth, twenty-second, twenty-seventh and twenty-ninth respectively.

Although this year's team was not exceptional, if more people participate next year, we can look forward to a fine team which will beat Kennedy and break its monopoly of the championship.

Kirk Zeller--10C₂

FOOTBALL TEAM

Although our football team attained only two hard fought victories, the Green Twelve did manage to set two new team records: the first shutout and the first-back-to-back victories by the Green Griffins.

Our team placed one member on the All-Star city team, captain Doug Mitchell who has gained honour for two straight years.

Next year's Green Griffins should be excellent since only three linesmen, Bob Stasiuk, Doug Mitchell and Art Hawkins, will have graduated.

The thanks of the whole team goes to Mr. Oksanen, Mr. Chittaro, and Mr. Janisse for a job well done and a special thanks goes to Mr. Aitken and Pete Vuicic who managed and coached the junior team to a fine finish.

Art Hawkins--13A

SENIOR GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

By defeating Commerce, the Sr. girls won the W.O.S.S.A. Championship for the second consecutive year.

During the volleyball season, the Senior Girls' won six of seven games. They then played Commerce for the City Championship but were unsuccessful. However, the girls came back with their skill and fighting spirit and beat out London South, London Central and Commerce. By defeating these three teams, they successfully won the W.O.S.S.A. Championship again. The title might have never been won if it had not been for the leadership of Miss Davis.

SENIOR BOYS' VOLLEYBALL

The boys' volleyball team, this year, was a successful one. However, completing an undefeated regular season, the team lost the W.S.S.A. championship game to Walkerville, as well as the W.O.S.S.A. championship.

This year's team was the best the school had ever produced as the whole team gave a great effort in reaching the W.S.S.A. finals as well as the W.O.S.S.A. finals.

Thanks is due to Mr. Durocher as coach pushed the team all the way. The support afforded by the student body was also greatly appreciated by the team.

Robert Small--13A

SOCCER TEAM

The soccer team under Mr. Sheehan's guidance was plagued mainly by inexperience with only two regulars back from last year.

Nevertheless, Herman completed the season with a record of three wins and two tips in seven games, thereby qualifying to meet Kennedy which was victorious in overtime. This was the first time a Herman team failed to reach the finals.

Thanks for an outstanding effort goes to Steve Maerzluft and Acky LaPorte who with eight and five goals respectively captured the team's scoring honours. Along with Steve and Acky on the forward line, there were Tom Flatley, Joe Wajtowich, and Harmen Heyn.

Equally important was the splendid work of the defence. Strength was provided by Helmut Elbert in goal, with Jim Anderson, Ron Cunningham, Joe Perz, Kirk Zeller, Don Raymond, and Quentin Champman in front.

Harmen Heyn--13A

SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Senior Boys' Basketball team this year gave Herman C.I. something to give her pride, when it completed the regular season with 9 wins against no defeats. The team then went on to win the W.S.S.A. championship by defeating Lowe Technical School in the semi-finals, and Kennedy Collegiate in the finals.
